

2019 Editorial Calendar

	FOCUS	SPECIAL REPORT/SECTION	SPACE CLOSE	MATERIALS DUE
JANUARY/FEBRUARY	The Public Safety Issue Body cams. Gunshot detectors. License plate readers. Drones. Is Technology making us safer?	The GovTech100 – 4th Edition	11/19/18	11/23/18
MARCH	ID, Please The quest for a single digital identity. Where is government on the path to advanced access management and adaptive multi-factor authentication?		1/21/19	1/24/19
APRIL/MAY	Doers, Dreamers and Drivers Our picks of the Top 25 people who are changing citizens' experience with their government.	State of Tech in the States (The governors who talk tech) Public CIO Special Report	2/18/19	2/21/19
JUNE	The CIO Issue Broker, builder, leader, manager, innovator, cabinet member, buyer, influencer — the role of chief technologists is shaped by where they serve. What does the future look like for public CIOs?		4/22/19	4/25/19
JULY/AUGUST	The Push and Pull of Privacy Public agencies must responsibly protect citizen privacy — and not make front-page news for failing to do so — while ushering their jurisdictions into smarter, more connected futures that benefit all citizens.		5/20/19	5/23/19
SEPTEMBER	Forecasting the Future Seeing around corners for innovations and emerging tech that is changing (and recreating) the business of government.	Public CIO Special Report	7/22/19	7/25/19
OCTOBER/NOVEMBER	New Threats. Better Tech. Evolving a robust, nimble and adaptive cybersecurity approach in a constantly changing threat environment.		8/26/19	8/29/19
DECEMBER	Year in Review: What Have We Learned? A digest of what mattered — and what didn't — in state and local government's use of technology on the eve of 2020.		10/31/19	10/24/19

Updated 1/3/19

